AFRICA MUST DIVERSIFY

The Minister of Trade and Industry has called for the African economies to diversify in order to attract foreign direct investment. He warned that economic integration in Africa was facing a threat if infrastructure development did not take place. Economies were inward looking and focused on the exports of raw materials to shore up its gross domestic product. The recent global slump in oil and commodity prices due to slowing demand, particularly from China, required a new approach to doing business on the continent that would be consumption-based. Countries should diversify into a common market.

[Adapted from Business Report, 5 October 2015]

GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT PLANS OF SOUTH AFRICA

The National Development Plan (NDP) foresees a South Africa where everyone feels free, yet bounded to others, where everyone embraces their full potential. Realising such a society will require transformation of the economy and focused efforts to build the country's capabilities. Poverty and inequality should be reduced and the economy must grow faster in ways that benefit all South Africans.

The RDP, on the other hand, was an integrated, coherent socio-economic policy framework structured around its overall goal namely, a better life for all.

[Adapted from OECD Economics Survey 2015]
